Reliance Worldwide Corporation Limited (Company)

ACN 610 855 877

Adopted by the Board on 22 June 2022

Committee charter

1 Membership of the Committee

The Committee must consist of:

- only non-executive directors;
- a majority of independent directors;
- an independent director as chair; and
- a minimum of 3 members.

The Board may appoint additional non-executive directors to the Committee or remove and replace members of the Committee by resolution. Members may withdraw from membership by written notification to the Board.

Non-committee members, including members of management, may attend all or part of a meeting of the Committee at the invitation of the Committee chair.

2 Role and responsibilities - nomination

The responsibilities of the Committee in respect of nomination are as follows:

- (a) Assist the Board to develop and regularly review its board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills, expertise, experience and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.
- (b) Review and recommend to the Board the size and composition of the Board, including review of Board succession plans and the succession of the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer (CEO), having regard to the Board skills matrix and the objective that the Board comprise directors with a broad range of skills, expertise and experience from a broad range of backgrounds, including gender.
- (c) Review and recommend to the Board talent and succession plans of the Company more generally.
- (d) Review and recommend to the Board the criteria for nomination as a director and the membership of the Board more generally, including:
  - making recommendations for the re-election of directors, subject to the principle that a Committee member must not be involved in making recommendations to the Board in respect of themselves; and
  - assisting the Board to identify qualified individuals for nomination to the Board, in accordance with the policy outlined in section 3.
- (e) Assist the Board in relation to the performance evaluation of the Board, its committees and individual directors; and
- (f) Monitor that processes are in place to support director induction and ongoing education and regularly review the effectiveness of these processes.

3 Policy, procedure and disclosure of the selection and appointment of new directors

3.1 Policy

Factors to be considered when reviewing a potential candidate for Board appointment include without limitation:

- the skills, experience, expertise and personal qualities that will best complement Board effectiveness and promote Board diversity having regard to:
  - the Board skills matrix; and
  - the existing composition of the Board;
- the capability of the candidate to devote the necessary time and commitment to the role (this involves a consideration of matters such as other Board or executive appointments); and
- potential conflicts of interest, and independence.

3.2 Procedure

- (a) A detailed description of the role and the capabilities of the director should be prepared.
- (b) Detailed background information in relation to a potential candidate should be provided to all directors.
- (c) The identification of potential director candidates may be assisted by the use of external search organisations as appropriate.
- (d) Appropriate checks should be undertaken in relation to all potential candidates. This process may be assisted by the use of external organisations as appropriate.
- (e) An offer of a Board appointment must be made by the Chair only after having consulted all directors, with any recommendations from the Committee having been circulated to all directors.
- (f) All new Board appointments should be confirmed by letter in the standard format as approved by the Board or the Committee from time to time.

3.3 Disclosure

Each year, the Committee will report to the Board on the following details of the Board selection process with a view to including comments in the annual report:

- the process by which candidates are identified and selected, including whether external search organisations are used and the background checks undertaken;
- the steps taken to ensure that a diverse range of candidates are considered; and
- the factors taken into account in the selection process, including whether a board skills matrix is used to identify any 'gaps' in the skills and experience of the directors on the Board.

4 Re-election of directors

Each year, the Committee will review each of the directors who are seeking re-election in light of their independence, the result of their performance review, the Company's succession plans and any other factors considered relevant to the director's contribution to the Board. On the basis of its review, the Committee will make a recommendation to the Board regarding whether to support the director's re-election.

5 Role and responsibilities - remuneration

The responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:

- (a) Conduct regular reviews of, and monitor the implementation of, the Company's remuneration framework to confirm it:
  - encourages and sustains a culture aligned with the Company's values;
  - supports the Company's strategic objectives and long-term financial soundness; and
  - is aligned with the Company's risk management framework and risk appetite.
- (b) Review and recommend to the Board arrangements for the CEO, including contract terms, annual remuneration, participation in the Company's incentive plans, incentive performance targets and relevant award opportunities, outcomes and bonus payments.
- (c) Review and approve arrangements for the CEO's direct reports, including contract terms, annual remuneration, participation in the Company's short and long term incentive plans, incentive performance targets and relevant award opportunities, outcomes and bonus payments.
- (d) Review and recommend to the Board the remuneration arrangements for the Chairman and the non-executive directors of the Board, including fees, travel and other benefits.
- (e) Review and recommend to the Board for approval any proposed consultancy arrangements with a director, senior executive or a related party of a director or senior executive.
- (f) Review and recommend to the Board major changes and developments in the Company's policies and procedures related to remuneration, recruitment, retention, termination and performance assessment for senior management.
- (g) Approve major changes and developments in the policies and procedures related to remuneration, superannuation arrangements, personnel and industrial relations strategies for the Group.
- (h) Review and recommend to the Board changes and developments in relation to the Company's employee equity incentive plans.
- (i) Recommend to the Board whether offers are to be made under any or all of the Company's employee equity incentive plans in respect of a financial year.
- (j) Oversee the operation of the Company's employee equity incentive plans in place from time to time.

- (k) Review and recommend to the Board the aggregate value of award opportunities and the aggregate value of award outcomes being made based on performance for all employees.
- (l) Monitor that risk behaviours and outcomes and any other relevant factors are reflected in the employee remuneration outcomes.
- (m) Review and make recommendations to the Board on remuneration by gender.
- (n) Approve the appointment of remuneration consultants for the purposes of the Corporations Act 2001.
- (o) Take appropriate action to ensure that the Committee, the Board and management have available to them sufficient information and external advice to ensure informed decision-making regarding remuneration.
- (p) Review and recommend to the Board the remuneration report prepared in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 for inclusion in the annual directors' report.
- (q) Review and facilitate shareholder and other stakeholder engagement in relation to the Company's remuneration policies and practices.

6 Remuneration policy

- (a) Executive remuneration and incentive policies and practices should be performance based and aligned with the Company's purpose, values, strategic objectives and risk appetite.
- (b) Executive remuneration and incentive policies and practice must be designed to:
  - ensure the Company's remuneration structures are equitable and aligned with the long-term interests of the Company and its shareholders and having regard to relevant Company policies;
  - attract and retain skilled executives;
  - structure short and long term incentives that are challenging and linked to the creation of sustainable shareholder returns, without rewarding conduct that is contrary to the Company's values or risk appetite; demonstrate a clear relationship between the Company's overall performance and the performance of executives;
  - appropriately incentivise positive risk behaviour and improved customer outcomes, encourage sound risk management of both financial and non-financial risks, and discourage unnecessary and excessive risk taking;
  - allow for proper adjustments to be made, including where risk and compliance failures occur; and
  - ensure any termination benefits are justifiable and appropriate.
- (c) In the discharge of the Committee's responsibilities, no executive should be directly involved in determining their own remuneration.
- (d) The Committee must at all times have regard to, and notify the Board as appropriate of, all legal and regulatory requirements, including any shareholder approvals which are necessary to obtain.

7 Review of Charter

The Board will, at least once in each year, review the membership and Charter of the Committee to determine its adequacy for current circumstances and the Committee may make recommendations to the Board in relation to the Committee's membership, responsibilities, functions or otherwise.

8 Administrative matters and procedures

The proceedings of the Committee will be conducted in accordance with provisions set out in Attachment 1.

Attachment 1

Administrative matters and procedures

Meetings

The Committee will meet as often as the Committee members deem necessary in order to fulfil their role. However, it is intended that the Committee will normally meet quarterly.

Quorum

The quorum is at least 2 members.

Secretary

The Company Secretary, or his or her delegate, must attend all Committee meetings as minute secretary.

Convening and notice of meeting

Any member may, and the Company Secretary must upon request from any member, convene a meeting of the Committee. Notice will be given to every member of the Committee, of every meeting of the Committee. However, there is no minimum notice period and acknowledgement of receipt of notice by all members is not required before the meeting may be validly held.

Independent advice

The Committee may seek the advice of the Company's auditors, solicitors or other independent advisers, consultants or specialists as to any matter pertaining to the powers or duties of the Committee or the responsibilities of the Committee.

Rights of access and authority

The Committee has unrestricted access to information it considers relevant to its responsibilities. The Committee has rights of access to management and to auditors (external and internal) without management present, and rights to seek explanations and additional information from both management and auditors.

Minutes

Minutes of meetings of the Committee must be kept by the Company Secretary. All minutes of the Committee must be entered into a minute book maintained for that purpose and be available for inspection by any director.

Reporting

The Committee chair will provide a brief oral report to the Board as to any material matters arising out of Committee meetings. All directors may, within the Board meeting, request information of members of the Committee.

A copy of the minutes of Committee meetings will also be provided to the Board with the next Board papers or otherwise distributed to Board members. The Committee will also consider if any material matters arising out of the Committee meeting should be advised to any other Committee and, if so, ensure that this occurs.
